

Elizabeth L. Bartheld

Elizabeth Bartheld is Vice President of Government Affairs at the American Forest & Paper Association. She manages the Association's advocacy efforts in Washington, D.C., state capitals, and international venues.

Prior to joining AF&PA in 2012, Elizabeth served as chief of staff of the office of Congressman John Sullivan (OK-1) for nine years. In this role, she acted as the Congressman's chief policy advisor, managed all office operations, and established and maintained strategic relationships with Members of Congress, staff, political organizations, coalitions, and lobbyists. She originally joined Congressman Sullivan's office as administrative assistant/legislative director. While serving as legislative director, Elizabeth led the Congressman's efforts on energy policy.

As an associate at Cavarocchi Ruscio Dennis Associates, Elizabeth presented policy recommendations and interests of clients to Members of Congress and federal agencies.

Ms. Bartheld began her career in Washington, D.C. in the office of Congressman Wes Watkins (OK-3), eventually accepting the position of legislative director.

Ms. Bartheld holds an undergraduate degree from Baylor University in Waco, Texas and a master's degree in business administration from the Smith School of Business at the University of Maryland.
